- 17 1) This is cool, I want to go try some of that farm's products! it looks amazing!
- 18 2) This guy gives hope in humanity.
- 19 3) Holy shit this guy is heartwarming.
- 20 4) Hard working man, this Anshu guy is.
- 21 5) Anshu seems like such a nice person, and he treats his animals with so much 22 respect. It made me smile when he patted people on the back, said "thank you"
23 and smiled so much :) I chose to stop eating meat when I saw how factory farms 24 treated animals. I'd go back to eating it again if I knew all farms treated their 25 animals like he does, or if I lived near him!
- 6) He is so precious and seemed so happy, I love him already and his presence would be able to make anyone happy! Such a bright man, despite the way he lives but he loves it. I admire that.

- 1 7) I don't comment on videos that often, and I hardly ever give a video a "like", but 2 this video just made me so happy. he seems like such a wonderful, hardworking 3 man. he's just so grateful and humble, which is not something you see much of 4 these days. you did well on this one, buzz feed. you get a thumbs up today.
5 8) Oh my goodness he seems to be such a good and precious man! I love seeing 6 people with such happy souls.
7 9) Shout out to Anshu for being one of the rare farmers who actually cares for the 8 animals wellbeing. more farmers need to be like you.
9 10) What a hardworking guy. This made me so happy. This is how raising animals 10 should be.
11 11) The farmer is so nice it's unreal I never wanted to hug someone more.
12 12) Anshu is a really cool dude.
13 13) It's so enlightening to know that there are good farmers like Anshu out there,
14 making sure his animals are treated humanely.
15 14) THIS is how animals that are used for food should live their lives. They should be 16 treated with care and respect before their slaughter.
17 15) I'm a vegetarian and this made me very happy, I believe this is how all meat 18 should be raised.
19 16) I really liked Anshu!! He seemed genuine and funny.
20 17) That farmer seems so nice.
21 18) I love farmers like this man. People like him are real farmers. Those animals 22 deserve to be happy so that later they bring happiness around the dinner table. :)
23 19) This is the way that kill animals should be raised; in an open environment, cared 24 for, well-fed, and killed as humanly and painless as possible!
25 20) I'm vegetarian and I think that if you're going to eat meat I would much rather them be treated like this definitely.
21 21) Appreciated his pride in his craft and how nice he was! This is how animals
22 should be raised. I would love to sit down and have a meal with him.
23 22) This guy is awesome, and all I saw were his animals and listened to his honest 24 words.
25 23) Anshu seems like a good person we need more of him.

- 1 24) This farmer is adorable and so sweet.
- 2 25) Wish all meat was raised like this.
- 3 26) Anshu reminds me of my grandfather, who's also a farmer, who raises goats,
- 4 cows, chickens, turkeys, ducks, pigs, and fishes. They're dedication to raise these
- 5 animals very well, is really inspiring. It's not easy and it will take a lot of your
- 6 time. Hands down to all the farmers out there.
- 7 27) The farmer seems like such a sweetheart.
- 8 28) I just want to give Anshu a hug.
- 9 29) Anshu is an awesome person, raising the animals a good life is success to me. I'm
- 10 not vegetarian, I love meat and eat it. Cx I would feel less guilty if all animals
- 11 were raised like that, because I can know that they were happy.
- 12 30) This video makes me very happy. My family raises and eats our own wild and
- 13 exotic game meats. They are all organic, healthy and delicious. More people need
- 14 to be open to so called "alternative" meats. In other countries, these protein
- 15 sources are a daily meal and no one thinks twice about it.
- 16 31) Is it weird that I love Anshu's voice?
- 17 32) This is the kind of meat I would eat, guilt free! It's the way all meat should be
- 18 consumed. Clean, lots of space, hopefully killed humanely and quickly, well fed.
- 19 But if I had gone to that ranch and seen the animals, I wouldn't have dared eat
- 20 meat that day.
- 21 33) We need more farmer like this one, he loves his animals and take good care of
- 22 them instead of having them tortured in tiny cages on concrete.
- 23 34) I'm a vegetarian and it's good to see that these animals are raised properly and not
- 24 in harsh horrible conditions.
- 25 35) I wish more animals were treated like this, like it's not that hard to kill an animal
- 26 without abusing it
- 27 36) I'm a vegetarian, but I really respect him. He clearly cares for the animals well.
- 28 37) I feel like this is how a lot of people like to think their meat is raised and farmed,
- 29 but the reality is there are almost no farms like this anymore!! Kudos to this guy
- 30 for continuing to run an honest business.
- 31 38) Love this video the farmer was super nice!

- 1 39) I wish he was my dad 😊.
- 2 40) This guy deserves all the awards.
- 3 41) This is how everything should be raised. This is nice. I like this.
- 4 42) Respects to this guy. He has his farming done right.
- 5 43) I am not vegan but am staunchly against factory farming so it's great to see people showing the healthy more ethical side of farm raised animals.
- 6 44) What a beautiful farm. this man obviously cares about the health and wellbeing of his animals. he even names some of them. it's possible to eat meat while having respect for the life it took to feed you.
- 7 45) What an interesting man, I see a lot of positive comments from vegans that are saying if you are going to eat meat buy it from farmers like this gentleman.
- 8 46) He seems amazing tbh, so much care for what he does.
- 9 47) I wish all farms were like this. Eating meat isn't a problem how the animals are treated is the problem.
- 10 48) He seems like a really nice humble man.
- 11 49) This man is great he knows how raise animals for meat. I don't eat meat but this man makes me happy his animals have lived happy and healthy lives.
- 12 50) Every farm should be like this.
- 13 51) My favorite buzz feed video yet! I feel that people forget where their food comes from, and don't have respect for it. I wish that the reason were more farmers like him.
- 14 52) I really like that guy, he seems like a very calm chill dude ^^
- 15 53) You can tell that guys proud of his farm, so he should be! Looks beautiful there.
- 16 54) That man with the smile and the milk dripping from his face, not feeling the need to wipe himself... that's pure man.
- 17 55) This is how farming should be done.
- 18 56) I like this guy that's how I raise my animals they are raised for food but I love them and care for them while they are here😊MORE POSITIVE MEAT
- 19 FLAVORS TO!!!!!!😊😊😊.
- 20 57) I wish I could meet this man Anshu. He looks like the most humble, interesting guy I've seen recently. His life must be peaceful.

1 58) This is one of the coolest things I have ever seen ever. That man is so humble and 2 kind. I love the way he feels about his animals and line of work. I am hugely 3 against industrial farming, herding, and slaughtering so to see this was extremely refreshing and beautiful.

4 59) This man will always be blessed, amazing.

5 60) This is how should animals ne raised to be food not like in the factories.....

6 61) Indians (mostly the elder ones) are one of the most humble and friendly people that I have ever met.

7 62) What a nice guy.

8 63) I wish all animals were raised like this. They deserve it. and I love this guy lol.

9 64) I want to be Anshu.

10 65) I honestly just want to live on that farm with that guy and help him out because it honestly looks fun.

11 66) Aweee this farmer is just the cutest, so damn friendly.

12 67) It's nice that he treats his animals kindly, and gives them love. That's how all 13 animals used for food should be treated. They should die happy, not in some crowded cage in its own feces.

14 68) I'm a vegetarian but I love this. I love the way he cares for the animals and loves 15 them. I mean everybody says "they're just gonna die anyways, it doesn't matter 16 how they're raised" but I mean, we all are gonna die but we all try to make it as 17 fulfilling as ever. so I really appreciate how this guy farms, because everything else is all factories.

18 69) This dude was so chill & I love it.

19 70) All animal used for food should be raised like this.

20 71) I love this guy.

21 72) I'm a vegetarian but it's good to know that he treats his animals nicely.

22 73) I think I've seen Anshu on like 4 other channels hahahah love that guy.

23 74) Anshu's the man.

24 75) As a vet student, this farm makes me incredibly happy. The man understands that an animal's stress will produce a less quality carcass, and has given them the perfect life up until slaughter. I am sure he tries to avoid stress in slaughter as 1 well. And much of the world eats goats, I haven't tried it myself but I hear it's 2 amazing.

3 76) Anshu appears to be a really cool, friendly, guy.

4 77) I wouldn't be a vegetarian if all animals were treated like this. It's lovely.

5 78) This is how animals should be raised.

6 79) I love this guy! He was so humble and happy to see them all enjoying his food!

7 80) I am vegan, I would obviously never eat the meat, but I support the fact that if 8 someone HAS to eat meat, this is probably the best way.

9 81) This is how everything should be raised. This is nice. I like this.

10 82) Oh my goodness I love this.

11 83) This is how we should raise all the animals we use for food. We treat our animals 12 like a factory, just a product to be made and sold. We forget that animals are 13 living creatures too. They should be treated well, like this man treats his animals.
14 A+ for him.

15 84) The Farmer is nice. I want to meet him.

16 85) Anshu seems like such a cool guy.

17 86) I think somehow we could say this an educational video.. cool vid.

18 87) I love the way this man respects his animals. This is how farm animals should be 19 treated...loved and respected for the sacrifice they make in order for us to eat.

20 88) I'd love to see this become the standard method of meat production in my 21 lifetime. not likely, but one can hope.

22 89) That farmer is hella cool yo!

23 90) Man that farm owner is so cool.

24 91) I bet If more farmers raised their stock like this man, we'd have a lot less vegans 25 around. Give 'em a good life and a quick death so they can go on to be nourishment for something else. Circle of life my friends.

92) I like how he says 'enough water for everybody" in reference to his animals :) like his friends.

93) THIS is what farming should look like in America. There should be no factories, no small cages, no animal cruelty.

1 94) What a nice man, came to the states legally, built himself a great life, and respects
2 the American way of life. Why do so many people agree with letting people who 3 illegally snuck into our country stay, provide them with welfare, and conform to their culture?

4 95) This guy is fantastic.

5 96) I may be wrong on this, but is this the same guy as skippy62able's "What Happens
When A Human Tries to Steal Eggs From An Ostrich Nest" video? He seems 6 really familiar, if it is he's a pretty cool guy.

7 97) I'm not vegan but I like the way he treats his animals.

8 98) I like this. He raises the animals for meat, but he treats them like family. He 9 knows he's gonna kill the animals one day, but he keeps them healthly, well 10 raised, and raised like family. It's sad to know that some people raise animals like trash. Anshu is a great a kind guy. I like him.

11 99) This farm looks after there animals well. They look so happy and healthy! What a 12 good life they would have had!

13 100) I kinda have an old man crush on the farmer.

14 101) I love Anshu!

15 102) This guy is doing what he does, the best way it can be done. As an animal lover, I wish all meat farmers were like him. Props to you, Anshu, you're great.

16 103) There's a lot of people commenting upset that it wasn't shown how the 17 animals were slaughtered and "how can you nicely kill an animal?" has any one of 18 these people realized animals in nature are absolutely brutal to the animals they 19 kill? they rip each other to shreds and leave the bodies to rot in the woods. there is 20 no "nice way" to kill an animal, but that doesn't mean we should halt doing so entirely - i think it should just be quick an efficient. meat is a way for us to get 21 protein and nutrition. i love this farmer and how he treats his animals, and would 22 like to see more farms like his, but i personally think it's fruitless to be upset about deaths of animals we eat.

23 104) Isn't it ironic how he's Indian but he has a meat farm.

- 105) I'm a vegetarian, but it makes me glad to see animals raised in these
1 conditions. If you are going to consume meat, remember animals deserve dignity 2 and looking for well-kept meat like this is the best option for you and the world.
3 106) I would definitely buy meat from this man knowing that the animals have 4 lived a good life. Also he looks like a really nice person.
5 107) I wanna be like him :(
6 108) This is how all animals should be raised before they are eaten.
7 109) I'm glad animals are raised this way at that guys farm, not kept in tiny spaces and being slaughtered in inhumane ways.
8 110) THIS is how you raise an animal. With respect and love. You care for it.
9 Because unlike plants, animals are more than food. Anshu is just an incredible 10 person for doing this, and i have to say, there are so many edible animals in this world that we are not consuming...wild meat is the best!
11 111) This guy is a great guy! He's even on L.A. beast's ostrich video where he chases away ostriches.
12 112) I really love this farmer. Beautiful heart in the way he raises his animals.
13 113) Watching this made me happy.
14 114) Anshu seems like a really nice guy to be around.
15 115) I'm a vegan and yet I see this as okay...I really wish all meat raised 16 animals were raised like this instead of being crammed in a tight space, with little 17 food, and abuse. This is the humane way to raise animals for slaughter. I'm proud 18 if this guy!
19 116) He seems like such a genuinely nice person :-) 20 117) This is the way animals that we kill for food should be raised. Show them with love. Good man. Great farmer.
21 118) I like his philosophy.
22 119) Farmer was super nice. But in reality to feed everyone in America who wants meat requires some of those animal factories. I don't like it, but most 23 Americans cannot afford free-range organic meat.
24 120) Props to Buzzfeed for finding awesome people like Anshu and give him a spotlight.
25

- 1 121) The farmer was so sweet :)
- 2 122) Good to see nice responsible farming. how it should be.
- 3 123) Wow, those animals are loved & well taken care of. Beautiful farm.
- 4 124) His so nice. Most farmers are only raising animals for meat and money.
- 5 They basically hit and abuse the animals to get it to do whatever he/she wants it to 6 do. But Anshu is a really nice guy. And treats the animals like it should be treated.
7 :)
- 8 125) I actually want a friend like Anshu.
- 9 126) Anshu is legit goals 😊😊.
- 10 127) I'm vegan and against eating meat but if all animals that we eat were 11 raised like this man raises his animals everything that we eat would most likely 12 taste better, and the animals would live a happy life so I still highly respect this 13 man and his care for the animals although I am vegan.
- 14 128) I wish more farms were like his.
- 15 129) If I ever had to eat meat or animal product I would want it to be raised like 16 this. :)
- 17 130) We owe it to give the animals we eat the best life possible.
- 18 131) This farmer is so well respected for how he feeds, treats, houses, and loves 19 his animals. He ensures that they live a good, healthy, and happy life before we 20 use them to keep humans and other animals fed.
- 21 132) I don't eat meat, but I wanna meet this guy just to have a conversation. He 22 probably has a ton of cool stories.
- 23 133) Aw he seems like a sweet farmer.
- 24 134) Modern day food industry can learn something about this. Governments 25 have to do something about them.
- 135) I think this is how farming should be.
- 136) I hope to own a farm like his one day.
- 137) That's how animals should be raised. Great great guy and a huge thank you. Support your local farms, everyone. Know where your meat is coming from.
- 138) He is a really cool guy.
- 139) I LOVE THIS!

- 1 140) Anshu is cool.
- 2 141) Good to know they're treated nicely before they're slaughtered for human
- 3 consumption.

15 Thank you for your attention in solving this problem. All my current ad programs have 16 been covered by negative key words.
17

18 Please know that no intentional infringement occurred, but the pay per click search
19 mechanisms seem to get to too aggressive sometimes. As such, should you find another 20 possible infringement on Exotic Meat Market, just let me know and I can figure out a block 21 on that particular search engine when it goes beyond my actual keywords.

22 I noticed that today grassfedtraditions replaced me and yesterday it was buffalogal. Seems 23 that the Bing PPC (Yahoo and MSN) likes to "fluff up" its advertiser listings. Perhaps

At this point, I will not file a civil action against your business. But in future, if I will notice

I have added the negative key word "Exotic Meat Market" to all my pay per click advertising programs. That should cure any more problems.

8 UNJUST ENRICHMENT SCHEME OF YAHOO AND MICROSOFT CASE # 2

9 43. The world is spending more than $ 4.8 billion a year on pay-per-click advertising through 10 YAHOO and $16.8 Billion MICROSOFT alone. YAHOO'S keyword advertising, allows 11 advertisers to purchase or bid on certain keywords. When a user searches for these words, 12 links to the advertisers' websites appear in a "Sponsored Links" section of the search
13 results. In addition, advertisements with keywords can appear throughout the YAHOO
14 network – including on YAHOO Maps, YAHOO Product Search and YAHOO Groups
15 websites along with websites of affiliated entities. When the keywords at issue are 16 comprised of generic terms, there are few objections. But when the keywords include 17 trademarks, intellectual property owners understandably believe the goodwill associated 18 with their marks is being improperly utilized to direct traffic to third party websites.
19 Examples of these objection-raising third-party websites could include competitor 20 websites, unauthorized retailers, sites offering counterfeit goods or services, or sites designed to appear as neutral information sources that are actually backed by a competing company.

21 44. Defendant YAHOO and MICROSOFT "adds" Plaintiff's Trademarks as "Key Words" to their advertisers "bidding list" at Plaintiff's expense. (loss of Plaintiff's business)

(WWW.BROKENARROWRANCH.COM) for Trademark Infringement based on 24 following screen shot dated December 15, 2013.
25

47. The owner of BROKEN ARROW RANCH (WWW.BROKENARROWRANCH.COM)

confirmed by electronic mail that he did not add Key Word, "EXOTIC MEAT MARKET."

Mr. Pathak,

We are General Counsel for Lobels of New York (LONY). Your email of May 30, 2016 has been forwarded to my attention for response. Initially, please be advised that LONY has not used your mark, and has no intention of using your mark. As LONY's multi-generational family history in the meat industry reflects, the LONY tradition is steeped in providing only the finest and freshest USDA prime beef, all-natural lamb, Waygu beef, Berkshire pork, and all-natural poultry. LONY has never specialized in "exotic meats," and nowhere in LONY's on-line butcher shop is there any reference of any kind to such "exotic" offerings. While that alone should suffice to respond to your unfounded allegation, LONY has taken the additional, affirmative steps of ensuring that (i) the word phrase "exotic meat market" is not used as a keyword in any of its search terms (and instructed its marketing partners as to the same), and (ii) identified the phrase as a "negative" that will not respond to any of LONY's more general search terms. In light of the same, any contemplated action by you would amount to a frivolous prosecution, the response to which will require us to seek all appropriate sanctions, including attorney's fees. Please govern your actions accordingly.

Very truly yours,
James Denlea

I am in receipt of your assertion of trademark infringement regarding federal trademarks for Exotic Meat Market. I have reviewed your two current live trademarks for Exotic Meat Market and find them to be in order.

10
After a brief search of my current keyword programs, I can find no advertising, nor solicitations for the term "Exotic Meat Market" in any of my current keyword programs. Please cite specific examples of the possible infringement.

11
In good faith, since I too am a trademark holder and pending a fair resolution of this issue,
I have suspended a portion of my keyword program to limit any possible infringement.

12
However, as we continue to review our legal and advertising status, we will need to know some of the specific examples for which you are claiming infringement.

13
Thank you for your attention.

Greetings Anshu:

Thank you for the screen shots. It would seem Yahoo (aka Bing) is creating this problem. Exotic Meat Market WAS NOT one of my keywords for my rabbit advertising, yet the search engine decided that somehow my ad was suitable for that kind of search.

As such, I will apologize for Yahoo's mistakes in their aggressiveness to sell ad space.

In an effort to fix the problem, I have added a negative keyword phrase "Exotic Meat Market" to all Yahoo (Bing) keyword campaigns.

Please let me know if any other searches result in unintentional infringement of Exotic Meat Market.

Thank you for your patience.

Anshu:

Thank you for your attention in solving this problem. All my current ad programs have been covered by negative key words.

Please know that no intentional infringement occurred, but the pay per click search mechanisms seem to get to too aggressive sometimes. As such, should you find another possible infringement on Exotic Meat Market, just let me know and I can figure out a block on that particular search engine when it goes beyond my actual keywords.

I noticed that today grassfedtraditions replaced me and yesterday it was buffalogal. Seems that the Bing PPC (Yahoo and MSN) likes to "fluff up" its advertiser listings. Perhaps they need a letter.

Good Morning Rich,

Thank you.

Have you checked your invoices from last three years for your key words? That will help you to understand the infringement of my Trademark.

At this point, I will not file a civil action against your business. But in future, if I will notice further infringement, I will be forced to file the civil action to protect my Trademark rights.

1 You have been a Gentleman.

I have added the negative key word "Exotic Meat Market" to all my pay per click advertising programs. That should cure any more problems.
